

Why he's called "Doc"

A lot of people don't know that Doc Fletcher's real name is Jeff. His college buddies gave him the nickname in the 1970s because he used to tutor a lot of his fellow students at Eastern Michigan University. "It just stuck," he said.

a corner. He got pinned under some branches and couldn't get any air. But, he finally broke free.

"Our first clue that it would be a difficult stretch was about two bends into the river when we saw a family on folding chairs on shore. We said, 'Good morning,' and their greeting back to us was, 'You are going to die.' We soon found out what they were talking about. It was the only trip I've every aborted."

Canoe livery owners eventually came to their rescue.

Those who would like more information about canoeing Michigan's rivers can contact Fletcher at weekendcanoeing-mi@gmail.com.

Woman High Jumps 3'11" at Local High School Track

BEXAR COUNTY— After using Thera-Gesic® on her aching thighs, 49 year old Mary Ann W. says she caught olympic fever and easily soared over the bar. When asked who witnessed the feat, she painlessly replied, "None of your dang business!"

Go painlessly with Thera-Gesic®

Urology

Take Back Your Life!

Tired of the embarrassment of your uncontrollable bladder? Don't SUFFER in silence - Talk to your doctor today!

Sam Roseberg, M.D., F.A.C.S
Chief of Urology, Huron Valley Hospital

One Of Michigan's Most Respected Urologists.

